Date of decision: 26/02/97

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The grievance is in respect of the order dated July 31, 1996, available at Annexure.E, under which the NA permission granted in favour of the petitioner-Association came to be cancelled or revoked. Against these orders, a petition came to be submitted to the very same authority asking for review of the orders on the ground that, a reasonable opportunity of being heard was not given to the petitioner. This prayer came to be turned down, under the orders dated January 10, 1997, available at Annexure.G. The said are the orders in challenge in the present petition.

Upon hearing learned Counsel Mr.A.J.Patel for the petitioner and learned Govt. Counsel Mr.S.P.Dave, it appears that the present petition requires to be granted in part and the matter requires to be remanded to the Deputy Collector (N.A.), Ahmedabad, for deciding the same according to law on merits, after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the petitioner. Learned Counsel Mr.Patel makes it clear that, the petitioner-Association shall co-operate for the expeditious disposal of the above said proceedings. Rule is made absolute accordingly to the above said extent, with no order as to costs.
